Somerville Public Schools Buckingham Browne and Nichols Summer Camp Scholarship Application 2019

Somerville Public Schools is pleased announce the availability of a limited number of scholarships for Somerville families whose children would like to attend a Buckingham Browne and Nichols Summer Camp. Each candidate must have a demonstrated and documented need for financial assistance.

The City of Somerville is grateful for our partnership with the Buckingham Browne and Nichols School in offering this outstanding opportunity. Camp options are identified at www.bbnssummer.com, and scholarships are for any of their single week programs. Each child may attend two weeks of camp and receive up to $350.00 each week toward the cost. A free MBTA pass will be made available for students with any transportation needs.

Scholarships are available for Somerville Public School students in grades 6-9. Scholarship assistance will be given based on need and then on a first-come, first-serve basis. Applications are due by June 1, 2019.

Please answer the following questions.

Does your family receive benefits from social security disability office?	Yes	No
Does your family receive benefits from the Department of Transitional Assistance?	Yes	No
Is your student(s) eligible for the free or reduced lunch program?	Yes	No

The scholarship deadline is Friday, June 1, 2019.
