

Specialty Camp Descriptions

Week 1 AM and PM Mastermind Dungeons and Dragons

Dungeons & Dragons is a fun, collaborative storytelling game where participants get to decide the direction of the events. This program will use Dungeons & Dragons 5th Edition fantasy role playing game along with multi-modal activities that engage the whole child.

Week 1, 2, 3 and 5 PM Chess with Ilya

This camp is appropriate for beginners to advanced chess students. The program includes both instruction in elementary tactics and strategy, as well as individual gameplay. Sharpen your skills (logical thinking, problem-solving, planning ahead, etc.) for success in both chess and the academic world. Chess Master Ilya Krasik has worked with BB&N and our Lower School students for several years now and is eager to continue working with our summer campers.

Week 1 and 4 AM Sign Language

Kathleen Romeo is a deaf cochlear implant user who has been teaching American Sign Language (ASL) for the past ten years. Join her as she uses crafts, songs, and games to teach your children ASL.

Week 2 AM Mastermind Pokemon Science

Join Amanda in honoring the creatures both real and imagined as we dive into fantasy and reality using the scientific method as our guide. Participants will learn how to investigate their favorite Pokémon and what their real-life counterparts have to offer and become the ULTIMATE Pokemon Master!

Week 3 AM Virtual Literature Camp Harry Potter

If you've ever met a wizard, then you've only ever met ONE wizard. As you know, the world of magic is filled with every sort of specialty! What kind of wizard are you? That's what you will find out with your guide, Ally at Wizarding Camp! Learn what house you've been sorted into. Dive into lessons about potions, herbology, magical creatures and more and find out what kind of talent you might have in the magic arts. And who knows, you may just solve a mystery as you explore the virtual halls of this virtual wizarding school

Week 4 PM Theater Camp with Eli

Join our Music and Movement counselor Eli in his newest role as Theater Counselor. During his high school and college career, online auditioning has been a big part of his success and learning experience. He has auditioned for multiple theater performances and also The Real World, and The Voice. Join Eli and select a monologue from your choosing. Daily activities would consist of practicing slating on camera, practicing monologues, learning and doing various different acting and improv exercises.

Week 5 Virtual Literature Camp Half Blood

Discover your inner Demigod at Camp Half-Blood Virtual Living Literature camp! Learn what cabin you are in and participate in activities, challenges and competitions with other demi-gods within the safe haven of the world inspired by the stories of Rick Riordan. Explore mythology, astronomy and creative problem solving with your guide, Ally, as you make friends and challenge rivals and best of all, claim the power of your unique heritage uncovering the mystery in a unique quest.
